Quick look:

- International night

- Eden Albert Cultural Festival

Thank you to the year 2 classes who presented an informative and engaging assembly all about Syria on Friday. We loved learning new facts and seeing your dance and we appreciate the support from Lana, our teacher aide, and Rama, our valued parent volunteer.

Our Intermediates were at camp last week. A fantastic time was had by all – again, thank you to our parent helpers who gave up time from their lives to support our students. Nicola, Laura and Joe, assisted by Erynn, made it memorable and challenging. Here are a few photos of the highlights:

International night is fast approaching – as with everything 2020, it has a different look from other years. All students will be involved: singing, dancing, playing, sharing. The PTA will be conducting a silent auction, with some really great items available (see below for the full list). We look forward to seeing you there at 5:30 on Thursday – bring a family picnic, and some cash to spend at the second-hand goods stall.

NEW this year is Teacher For the Day. One 'lucky' student from each room will be their class teacher for the day on Thursday 3rd December. There will be a silent auction at International night for parents to bid on this unique experience! What a day to remember.

You can also purchase coffee, crepes, ice creams/ice blocks and a sausage from the sausage sizzle.

Come and enjoy this special community event in the Kohia calendar. – a DO NOT miss. Please also check the list above for other school events between now and the end of term.

Drink Bottles and Glasses

For those of you with children leaving at the end of the year, you may like to buy a KTS metal drink bottle as a memento of their time at the school. These are for sale in a range of colours (see picture below) for $20, along with double-walled glasses – perfect for hot or cold drinks. The glasses are $30 for a set of two, with or without the KTS logo. Bottles and glasses are for sale through Kindo or at the office. All the proceeds from each purchase go directly to the school. Thank you again to the Spurway/Allen family for generously donating these to KTS.
