THE POWER TO DREAM THE PASSION TO ACHIEVE

Our values

Kohia Kaitiaki - we Care and Respect, Persevere to Achieve and Lead with Integrity

Our learner competencies

Mōhio - self awareness

A learner who knows and values self and strives to be the best they can be

Whanaungatanga - relating to others

A learner who builds positive relationships through words and actions

Whakaaro - thinking

A learner who actively notices, questions, and thinks flexibly to make sense of their world

Whakatutukitanga - taking action

A learner who actively participates and contributes to achieve an outcome that makes a difference.

Our guiding whakatauki

Kohia te wānanga e tū ki te ao mārama

Gather the knowledge of those around us to stand up and face the world

Te Mātaiaho & our Local Curriculum

How can we use key elements of Te Mātaiaho to design a local curriculum which empowers our KTS ākonga to stand and face the world (e tū ki te ao mārama)?

Quality practice

How effectively is the school strengthening capability in literacy and numeracy across the curriculum to extend and enable all ākonga to be the best they can be?

Te ao Māori

How can we better create culturally inclusive teaching environments that support the achievement of all learners and build collective bicultural understanding?

Hauora (wellbeing)

How do we enhance well-being (mental health and social and emotional challenges), and encourage inclusion and respect for diversity?

Curriculum Refresh

Curriculum Refresh

How is the curriculum being refreshed and what does it mean for KTS?

Summary from MOE

1

From the 2007 New Zealand Curriculum

Vision for young people and purpose

To the refreshed New Zealand Curriculum

- A refreshed Te Tiriti-Honouring and Inclusive Curriculum Framework will be introduced.
- The Framework will include a whakapapa, a Vision for Young People - written by young people, for young people, and a purpose statement calling us to action with key shifts to ensure equity and inclusion for all ākonga.

2

From the 2007 New Zealand Curriculum

Curriculum levels and achievement objectives

To the refreshed New Zealand Curriculum

- Designed to be cumulative - progressions replaces curriculum levels and achievement objectives with five phases of learning. Each phase of learning contains progress outcomes that describe what ākonga should Understand, Know, and Do at each phase of learning.

3

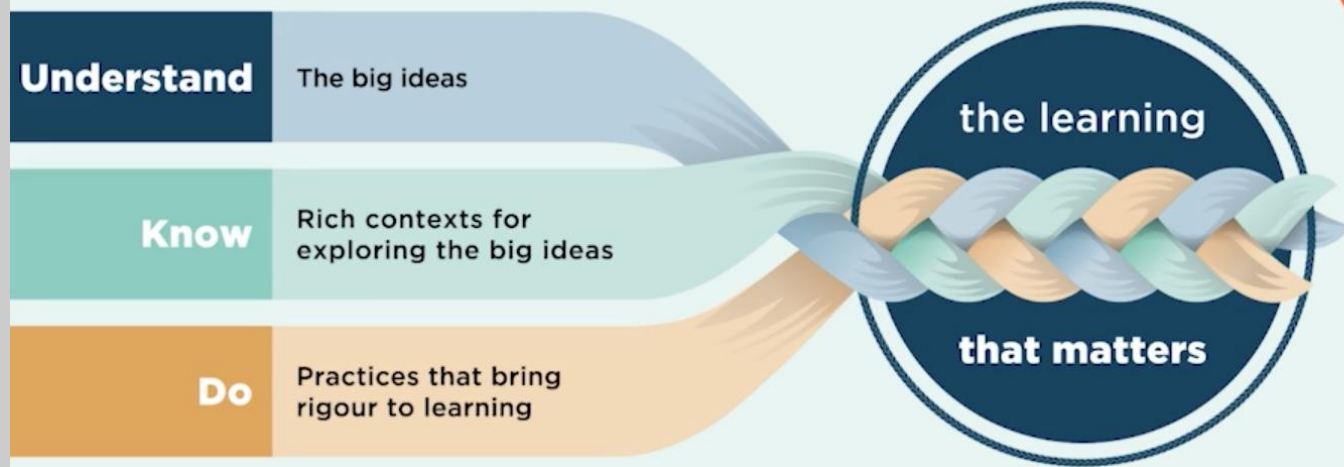

From the 2007 New Zealand Curriculum

Learning areas, mātauranga Māori, key competencies, literacy and numeracy

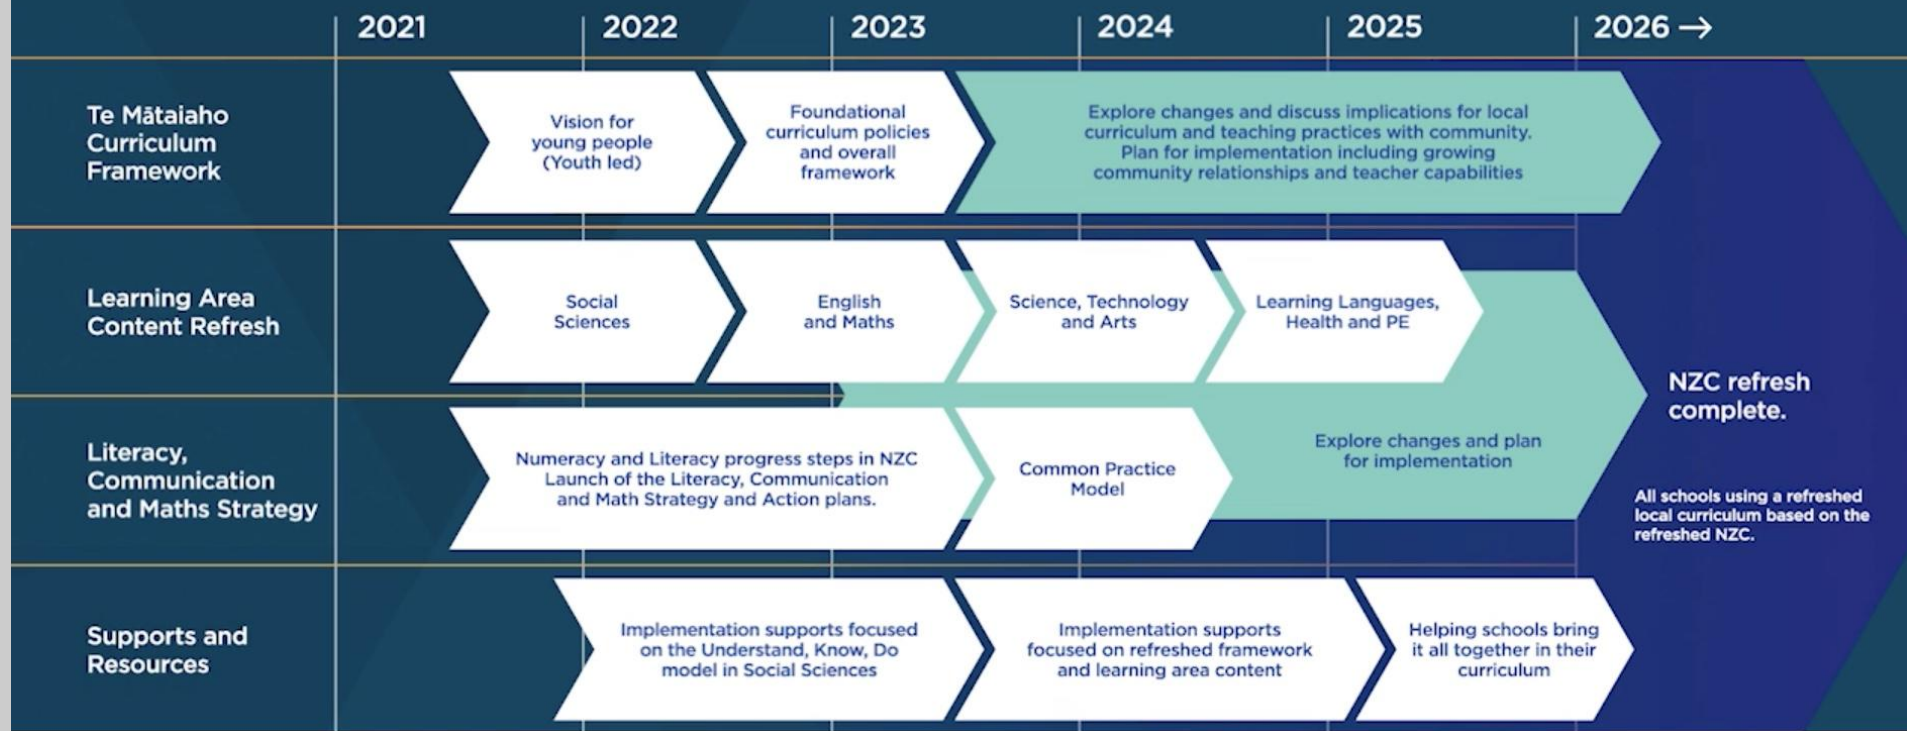

To the refreshed New Zealand Curriculum

- The refreshed NZC will be organised around the same eight learning areas and key competencies from the 2007 Curriculum.
- Mātauranga Māori will sit at the heart of the learning areas - with key competencies, literacy, and numeracy explicitly woven into each learning area.

The three elements are woven together, and they create the learning all ākonga should get the opportunity to experience – the learning that matters.
